Course Details

Exposure to radical propaganda in all of its forms & the radicalisation of young & vulnerable people is a growing issue in today's world. We all have a duty of care to safeguard & to help prevent radicalisation.

The session will provide:

- Knowledge & awareness to recognise the signs & symptoms of radicalisation
- Understanding of the factors that influence vulnerability to radicalisation
- Understanding of the roles & responsibilities of adults in relation to 'Prevent Duty', safeguarding & Ofsted expectations
- Confidence to challenge extremist ideas and establish counter-narratives

You have the option of attending the session to enhance your CPD. In addition, you have the option to top-up & complement by achievement of our unique & innovative accredited qualification: Level 2 Award in Understanding the PREVENT and Safeguarding Strategies (Ofqual)

Complete the registration which then allows three months to complete the modules through distance-learning after the session.
